As parents, having an honest conversation with our children helps enhance mutual understanding between both parties. While parents understand our children's issues, our children is assured that their parents are always here for them.

-Wendy Liao, mother of Raffles Student-

Placing a round wall clock in the West Sector of the children's room will help improve communication.

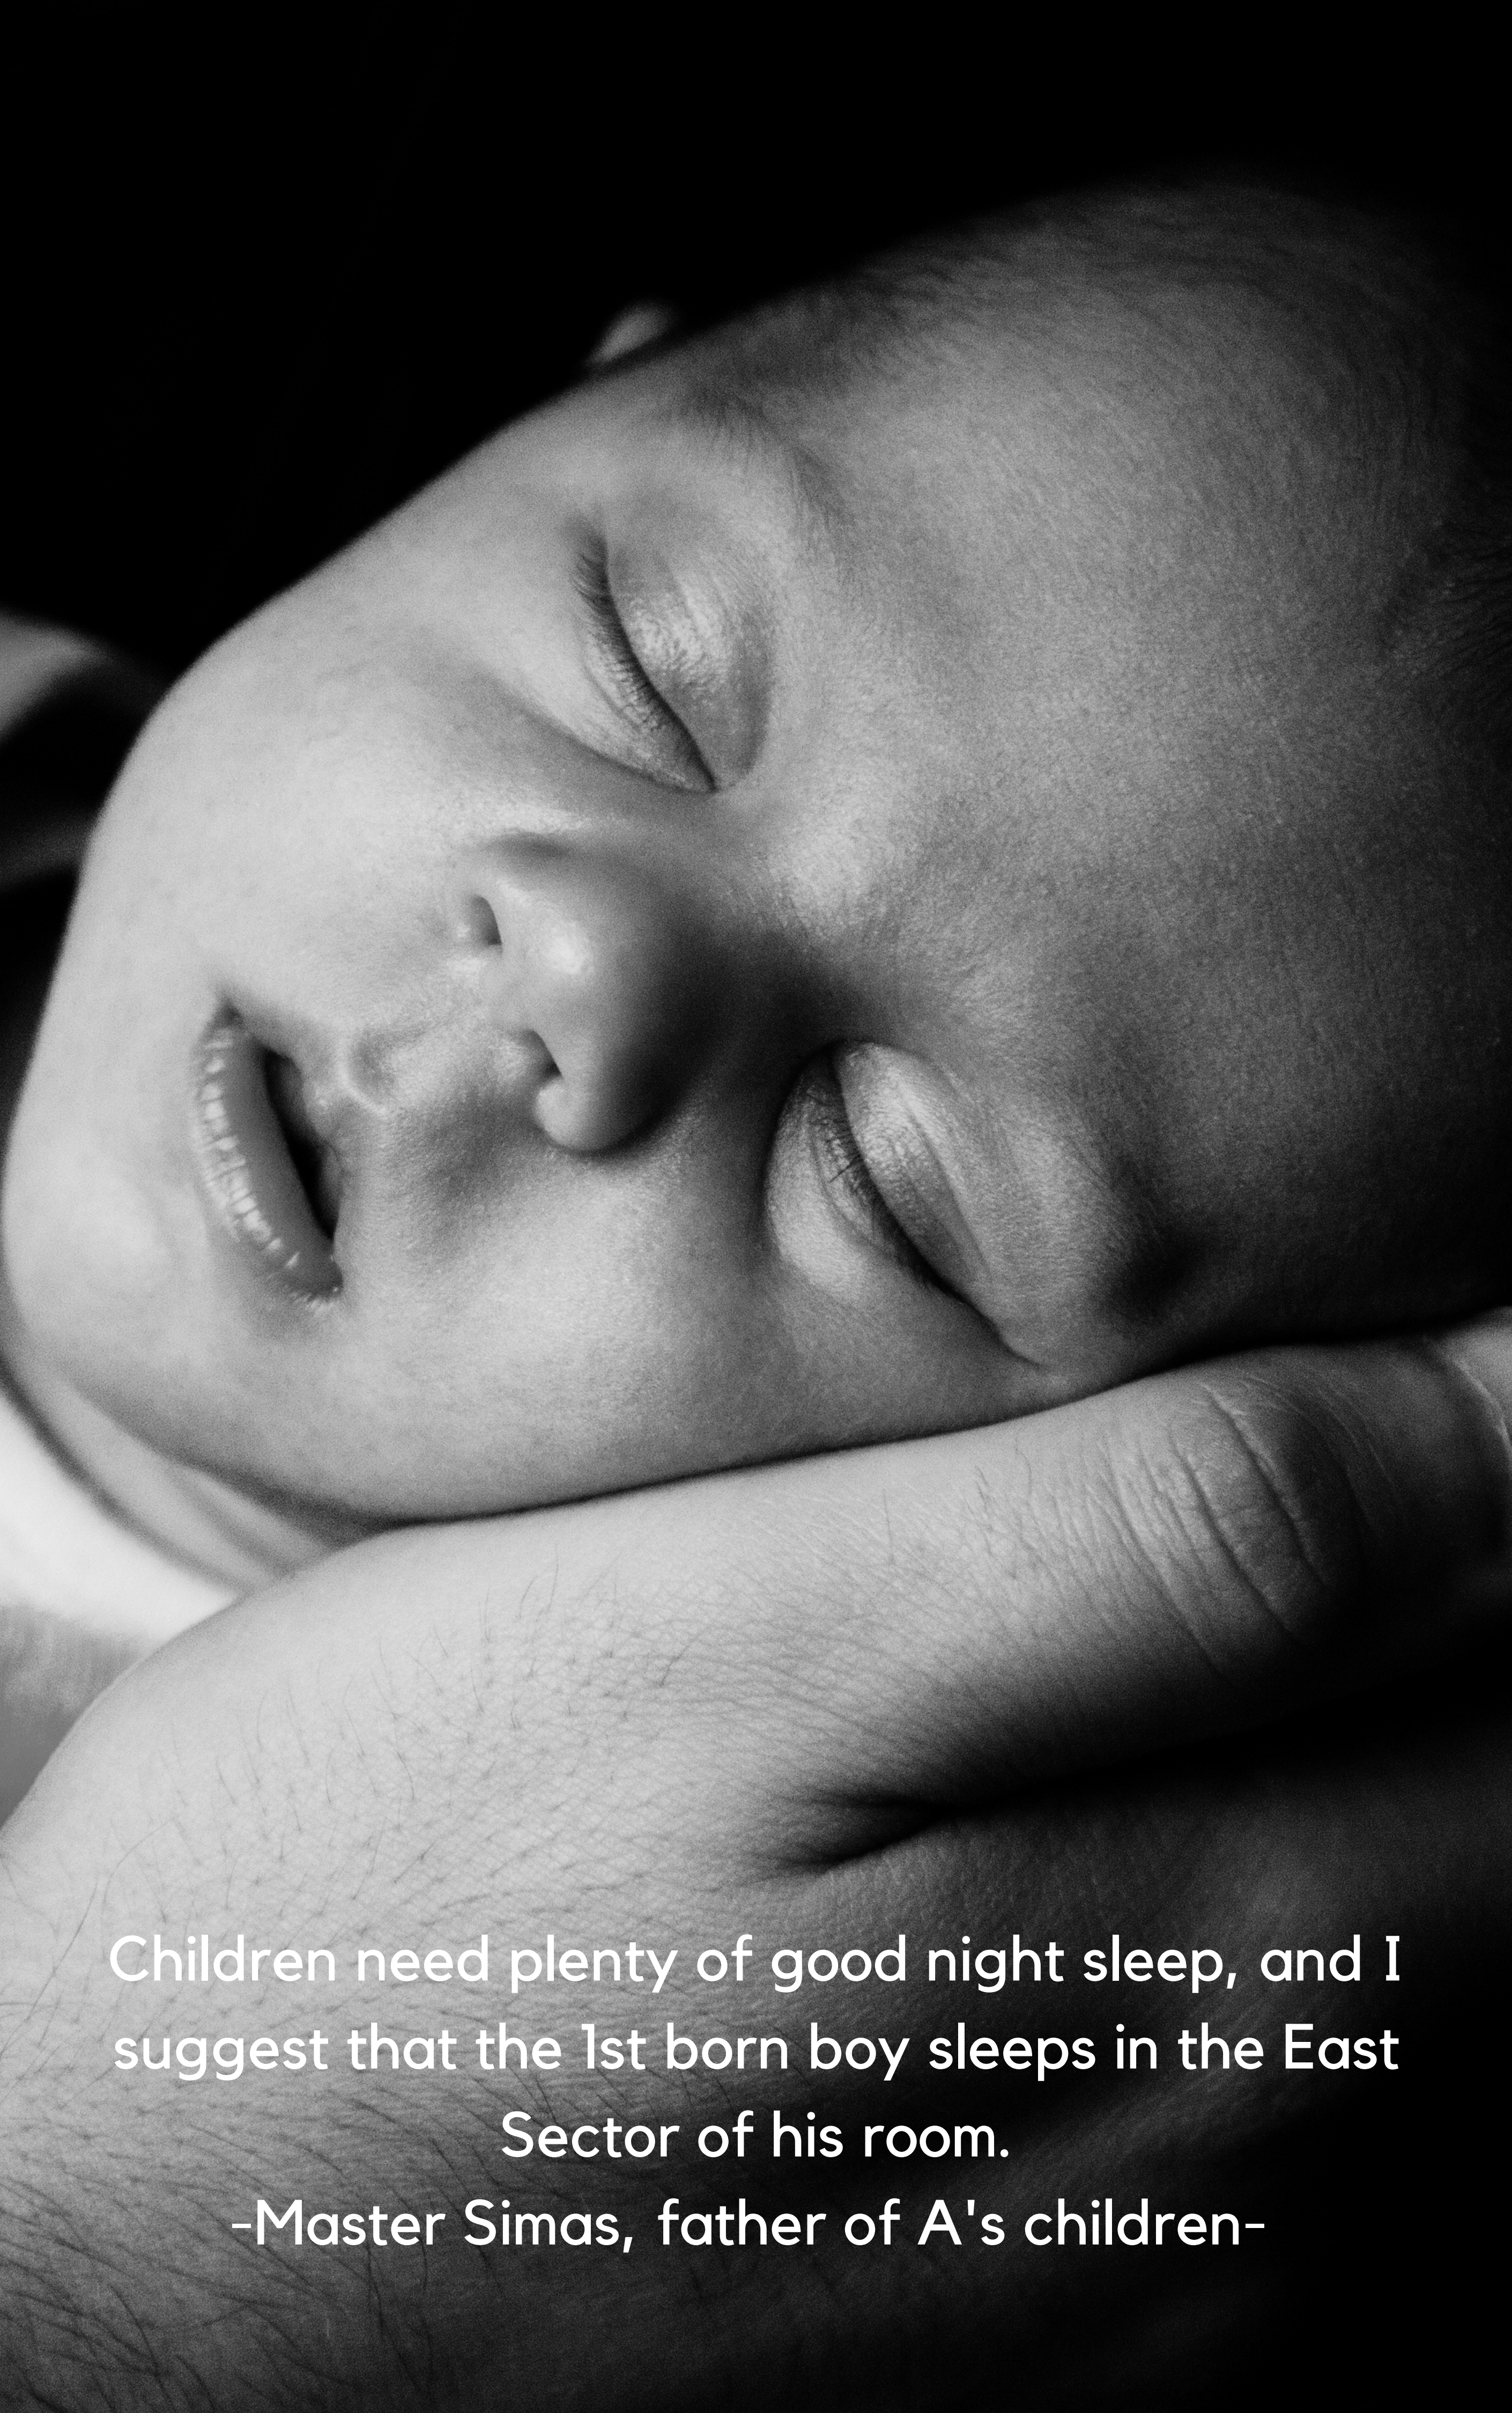

Always be proud of our children's achievements and display them for all to see
-Master Sherlyn Lee, A's Student-

Display medals of academic achievements in the West,
Northwest or South Sector of the house
-Master Sherlyn Lee, A's Student-

Only display certificates with stellar results in the South Sector of their room
-Master Sherlyn Lee, A's Student-

Children need plenty of good night sleep, and I suggest that the 1st born boy sleeps in the East Sector of his room.

-Master Simas, father of A's children-

1st born girl sleeps in the Southeast Sector of her room.

Master EL Fong, father of A's children-

When you have school-going children, always buy a house with a kitchen in the South of the whole property.

-Master Sharon Fong, mother of A's children-

A school in the South of your property helps improve your family's academic energy.
Master KK Siaw, father of A's Children
